Important Notes

1. Completing this application form does not bind the applicant to make a submission, however a serious attempt at preparing the final entry document is expected.
2. You are expected to submit the final entry document before the date specified by the Award Office. This document must reflect your organisation as it currently stands against the new DHDA model criteria.
3. It is recommended to demonstrate your commitment by announcing your decision to apply for the award to key members of staff and to nominate a senior person in your organisation to act as a project manager to facilitate the co-ordination and the information compilation process.
4. Start as early as possible. Do not underestimate the time it takes to produce a good submission document.
5. Upon receipt of this registration form by the DHDA office, you will be entitled for further updates about the Award together with any other booklets, seminars, events and courses organised by the Dubai Human Development Award Secretariat.
